Review by Kathy Parsons/www.MainlyPiano.com

Brothers Matt Johnson and Shortcut Sunny have created a brand new arrangement of the Burt Bacharach/Hal David classic from 1965, "What the World Needs Now." Matt did the arranging and plays the piano while Shortcut Sunny provides soulful vocals. Joining the duo are Andrew Toy on drums and percussion and Christopher Brown on acoustic bass.

Matt Johnson's music is usually difficult to put into one specific genre, and this arrangement is no exception. Something of a hybrid of jazz, rhythm and blues, and pop, it will appeal to a very broad audience. Bacharach/David created dozens of great songs that have aged really well over the decades, and this updated version of "What the World Needs Now" could be referred to as "Feel Good Music for 2022 (and Beyond)."

The companion "Official Music Video" features a montage of symbols of love and peace, which adds an even deeper meaning to this beautiful song.

The cover artwork rotated the colors of the Ukrainian flag as a reference to this turbulent time in history, and included heart and peace symbols to signify our need for love and peace.

Matt described the single as, "...love, peace and a smile all rolled up together in a timeless song of hope." I couldn't agree more!

"What the World Needs Now" is available as a free download on Matt's site and is also available from Amazon, Apple Music/iTunes and streaming sites such as Spotify. The music video is available on YouTube, as well as on Matt's site.

Add a little sunshine to your day (or night!) and check this out!

PUBLIC DOMAIN RELEASE

To Whom It May Concern:

I, Matt Johnson, (American pianist/composer, ISNI: 0000 0004 6875 3420) fully intend to enjoy the copyright benefits of my creative works while I am alive. However, upon my death I will relinquish all Intellectual property rights, copyrights and neighboring rights, thus bequeathing my entire catalog of creative works to the worldwide public domain. Concurrently, I'll relinquish all copyrights for each sound recording found within my discography—which is officially listed on www.MusicBrainz.com—into the public domain. My goal is to contribute my life's work to the global community and allow all of my endeavors to become freely available to everyone—no strings attached.

I've elected to use a three-tier copyright waiver created by the Creative Commons* called CC0 for this purpose. It is the best tool to legally release all copyrights on my works, as it provides adequate fallback permissions in case any part of the waiver is deemed legally invalid. This waiver nullifies and voids all copyright on my works. It also provides a fallback all-permissive license in case the waiver is deemed legally invalid. In the worst case that even the license is deemed invalid, the license contains a promise from me, the copyright holder, not to exercise any copyrights I own in my works. CC0 enables me to waive the interests in my works and thereby place them as completely as possible in the public domain, so that others may freely build upon, enhance and reuse my works for any purposes without restriction under copyright or database law. CC0 gives me the choice to opt out of the exclusive rights automatically granted under copyright and instead choose a "no rights reserved" alternative.

Further clarification: Upon my death, I explicitly disclaim any proprietary interest and release all rights to my entire catalog of Intellectual Property—i.e., musical compositions, sound recordings, books, prose, graphics, etc.—thereby placing everything in the worldwide public domain.

Statement of Purpose

The laws of most jurisdictions throughout the world automatically confer exclusive Copyright and Related Rights (defined below) upon the creator and subsequent owner(s) (each and all, an "owner") of an original work of authorship and/or a database (each, a "Work"). Certain owners wish to permanently relinquish those rights to a Work for the purpose of contributing to a commons of creative, cultural and scientific works ("Commons") that the public can reliably and without fear of later claims of infringement build upon, modify, incorporate in other works, reuse and redistribute as freely as possible in any form whatsoever and for any purposes, including without limitation commercial purposes. These owners may contribute to the Commons to promote the ideal of a free culture and the further production of creative, cultural and scientific works, or to gain reputation or greater distribution for their Work in part through the use and efforts of others.

In addition, to the extent the Waiver is so judged Affirmer hereby grants to each affected person a royalty-free, non transferable, non sublicensable, non-exclusive, irrevocable and unconditional license to exercise Affirmer's Copyright and Related Rights in the Work (i) in all territories worldwide, (ii) for the maximum duration provided by applicable law or treaty (including future time extensions), (iii) in any current or future medium and for any number of copies, and (iv) for any purpose whatsoever, including without limitation commercial, advertising or promotional purposes (the "License"). The License shall be deemed effective as of the date CC0 was applied by Affirmer to the Work. Should any part of the License for any reason be judged legally invalid or ineffective under applicable law, such partial invalidity or ineffectiveness shall not invalidate the remainder of the License, and in such case Affirmer hereby affirms that he or she will not (i) exercise any of his or her remaining Copyright and Related Rights in the Work or (ii) assert any associated claims and causes of action with respect to the Work, in either case contrary to Affirmer's express Statement of Purpose.
